LOVE LETTERS TO THE GROVE

The Grove at Northern Nights is a magical place. From early morning yoga, to daytime tea parties, or late night dancing, the Grove is a hub for community, connection, and experiencing life in the moment.

Last year we opened up The Grove for receiving a physical manifestation of that experience. In our own unique version of PostSecret, we are excited to present the first installment of Northern Nights – Love Letters to the Grove. You shared your beautiful thoughts with us, and now we are excited to share them with the world!

Beautiful Being,

I'm not quite sure what to say. so maybe I'll just leave a few truthes I've uncovered...

*You have control of where your destiny will lead you... your thoughts become your beliefs your beliefs, your words, your words, your actions, into habits, into destiny.

*Real unconditional love can be difficult. It is easy to hate, judge, lie and be selfish. Forgiveness is like honey to the soul.

*There are very few real coincidences in life. God, Karma, The universe, Great Spirit, whatever IT actually is or isn't likes to play in our lives. Recognize, appreciate and continue to seek it.

*You cannot be happy in a relationship until you're happy by yourself... cherish friendships always choose love...

BELOVED

Hello, Beloved,

Even if we have not met or will never meet in person in this lifetime, I love you. I honor you for your journey & I praise your path, as I sit writing in the dappled sun beneath those sacred trees. I delight in knowing that you are feeling the same earth, the same sun, & being blessed by the same trees. thank you for reminding me how much we all share in this lifetime. Dear one, we have shared so much in so many lifetimes. I am so grateful to call you sister, brother, mother, father, child, lover, friend, teacher. We have had so many adventures together, as well as trials, joys, sorrows, loves & triumphs. I am so happy to know that you are embodied here, now, in this moment on Earth. You are a deeply Beloved one of mine, & it is with so much gratitude that I offer you love & blessings. From the light of my heart & spirit to yours: Thank you, thank you, thank you. I love you, I love you, I love you.

Ah! There you are, I've been waiting for these beautiful eyes to slowly caress these lines. Waiting for these luscious lips to move in unison with these words. Now you can feel my breath on the breeze lightly I tousel your hair. You can hear the harmony of our voices twixt your ears. Though corporally absent in this moment we have become united. In each fond memory of writing these words I will experience the joy of your smile, and In your memories I hope you think of mine. It has been far too long since our last embrace but now we can enjoy each others company any time wish.

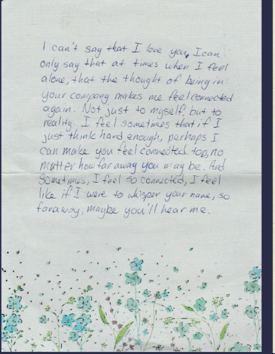
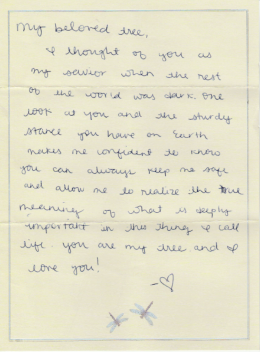
DREA~~N~~MER

you are a force to be reckoned with. Do you long fore me, as I long for you? At times feeling uncertain and ready to flee my active character craves excitement + motion. Even though at times that is painful. To feel alone when surrounded by many. Oh where does my soul mate lie? Deep within my heart we are one. And until then I'll keep dreaming ♡



I can't say that I love you, I can only say that at times when I feel alone, that the thought of being in your company makes me feel connected again. Not just to myself, but to reality. I feel sometimes that if I just think hard enough, perhaps I can make you feel connected too, no matter how far away you may be. And Sometimes, I feel so connected, I feel like if I were to whisper your name, so faraway, maybe you'll hear me.



My beloved tree,

I thought of you as my savior when the rest of the world was dark. One look at you and the sturdy stance you have on Earth makes me confident to know you can always keep me safe and allow me to realize the true meaning of what is deeply important in this thing I call life. You are my tree and I love you!

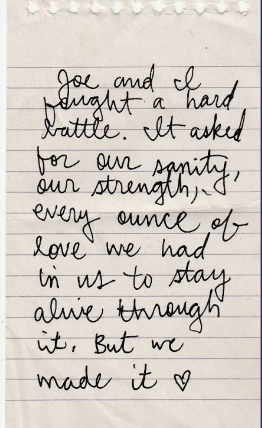
Reader,

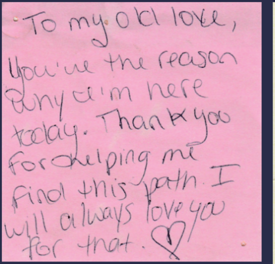
Recently I've been caught up in how I'm seen by others. I focus on reputation, success socially, and some form of acceptance. this isn't how one should live. If you feel you desire acceptance or interaction w/ others more than personal happiness, recognize the need for change and take a step back. Other people don't make us, therefore they don't validate us.

Enjoy yourself

NB

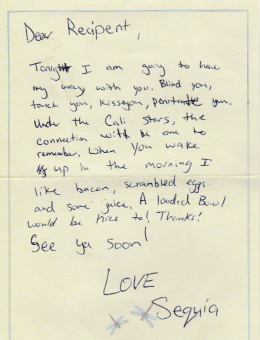


Joe and I fought a hard battle. It asked for our sanity, our strength, every ounce of love we had in us to stay alive through it. But we made it ♡



To my old love,

You're the reason why I'm here today. Thank you for helping me find this path. I will always love you for that. ♡



Dear Recipent,

Tonight I am going to have my way with you. Blind you, touch you, kiss you, penitrate you. Under the Cali stars, the connection with be one to remember. When you wake up in the morning I like bacon, scrambled eggs. and some juice. A loaded Bowl would be nice to! Thanks! See ya soon!
